FLORIDA ENERGY COMMISSION ADVISORY GROUPS TO HOLD CITIZENS' WORKSHOPS

At its last meeting, the Florida Energy Commission created four advisory groups to be lead by Commission members to further pursue issues within its charge and to solicit information and comments from the public.

During the month of March, three advisory groups and their designated Commission members will host Citizens' Workshops in several Florida locations. Meeting dates, times and locations are as follows.

Advisory Group	Chairman	Meeting Date	Meeting Time	Meeting Place

“The creation of advisory groups will allow us to better address the many facets of the energy issue,” said FEC Chairman Tommy Boroughs. “By addressing them at the local level, we open the doors to Floridians from all walks and allow them to participate in the process.”

The full Commission will meet again on March 23, 2007 in Orlando. The agenda for that meeting will be available about two weeks before the meeting date. At this time, a meeting time and place for the Conservation/Energy Efficiency Advisory Group has not been finalized. Another advisory will be released once the logistics for that meeting have been set.
